FROM THE DIRECTOR OF MUSIC

A very warm welcome to tonight’s concert in the lovely setting of Orford Church.

Our musical offering this evening is something rather special in that the three pieces we are performing were written in the 20th and 21st century.

Bob Chilcott’s Requiem is dedicated to his niece, who died young whilst he was composing this piece and influenced its style and shape.

Joseph Phibbs Choral Songs of Homage is an AMC commission to celebrate the Britten Centenary and tonight is its first performance.

The Kodaly Missa Brevis, first performed during the siege of Budapest towards the end of the second world war, was written at a time of great uncertainty, danger and personal hardship.

Three very different pieces each with its own message and very identifiable voice.

I hope you enjoy the concert.

FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Welcome to the final concert in our 2012/13 concert season. This evening we are delighted to perform three contemporary choral works in the beautiful setting of Orford Church. Though each is very distinctive, these works have an atmospheric quality which complements the fine acoustics of the Church.

Of special note this evening will be the premiere of Choral Songs of Homage by our composer-in-residence, Joseph Phibbs. This work has been commissioned by AMC to celebrate the centenary of our founder Benjamin Britten. We are grateful to the Britten-Pears Foundation and the Ralph Vaughan Williams Trust for awarding grants towards the cost of the commission and for a generous donation from Mr John Sims, patron and choir member.

The first concert of our 2013/14 season will be our Britten Centenary concert which will be held on Saturday 23 November in Orford Church as part of the Britten Centenary weekend celebrations. The programme will include works by Britten and Purcell. The music will be complemented by words from those who knew Britten.

As a tribute to the lasting cultural legacy that Benjamin Britten brought to Aldeburgh and the Suffolk coast, Aldeburgh Music Club in collaboration with our corporate sponsors Suffolk Cottage Holidays, have made a short film which can be seen on the AMC website www.aldeburghmusicclub.org.uk and the Visit Suffolk Coast website www.visit-suffolkcoast.co.uk. The commentary is by Humphrey Burton, President of AMC, and includes archive footage of Benjamin Britten. We hope you enjoy watching the film.

Aldeburgh Music Club is indebted to the generous help and support of over 120 patrons, to our corporate sponsors Suffolk Cottage Holidays and Big House Holidays, and for many donations and gifts.

Bob Chilcott (b. 1955)
Requiem

Bob Chilcott was born in 1955 and sang in King’s College Choir Cambridge as both a boy treble and undergraduate tenor. For many years he was a member of the King’s Singers, performing all over the world with frequent broadcasts and recordings. Bob Chilcott was conductor of the Royal College of Music Chorus for twelve years and is a guest conductor of the BBC Singers. Since 1977 Bob has focused on his compositional and conducting work.

Chilcott’s Requiem is dedicated to his niece who died at the age of 23 whilst he was writing the piece, which explains some of the Requiem’s contemplative nature. The Requiem was premiered in 2010 at the Sheldonian in Oxford and quickly gained popularity so that it is now performed widely. There are many settings of the Requiem, some of them choral masterpieces, but Chilcott has chosen his own personal approach, which closely mirrors the texts he has chosen. Chilcott was also clear that he saw both a liturgical and concert place for his Requiem.

‘Grant them eternal rest, O Lord’, ‘Let perpetual light shine upon them’ and ‘Thou knowest Lord the secrets of our hearts’, the only movement sung in English, typify Chilcott’s approach.

Bob Chilcott has a very close association with Fauré’s Requiem which he sang every other year at King’s. He was the boy soprano soloist for ‘Pie Jesu’ in the 1967 recording by King’s College Choir, conducted by Philip Ledger, one of the best-selling recordings of the work. This long association with the Fauré influenced him in the writing of his own Pie Jesu, also for a soprano soloist.

The Requiem has a soprano and tenor soloist.

Requiem

Introit and Kyrie
Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Offertorio
Domine Jesu Christe, Rex gloriae, libera animas omnium fidelium defunctorum de poenis inferni et de profundo lacu. Libera eas de ore leonis, ne absorbeat tartarus, ne cadant in obscurum. Hostias et preces tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus. Tu suscipe, pro animabus illis, quorum hodie memoriam facimus. Fac eas, Domine, de morte transire ad vitam, quam olim Abrahae promisisti et semini ejus.

Pie Jesu
Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis requiem. Pie Jesu Domine, dona eis sempiternam requiem.

Sanctus

Agnus Dei
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona eis requiem, sempiternam requiem.

Lux aeterna

Introit and Kyrie
Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and light perpetual shine on them. Thou art praised in Sion, O God, and homage shall be paid to thee in Jerusalem. Hear my prayer. All flesh shall come before thee. Lord have mercy. Christ have mercy.

Offertorio
Lord Jesus Christ, King of glory, free the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell and from the deep pit. Free them from the jaws of the lion, lest hell engulf them, lest they fall into darkness. In praise we offer to thee, Lord, sacrifices and prayers. Receive them for the souls of those we remember this day. Make them, Lord, pass from death to life, as thou didst promise Abraham and his seed.

Pie Jesu
Gentle Lord Jesus, grant them rest. Gentle Lord Jesus, grant them eternal rest.

Sanctus
Holy, holy, holy Lord God of Hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Agnus Dei
O Lamb of God, that taketh away the sins of the world, grant them rest, eternal rest.

Thou knowest Lord
Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts; shut not thy merciful ears to our prayer; but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge eternal, suffer us not, at our last hour, for any pains of death, to fall from thee.

Lux aeterna
Eternal light shine on them, O Lord, with thy saints for ever, for thou art good. Grant them eternal rest, O Lord, and light perpetual shine upon them. Eternal rest.
Joseph Phibbs (b. 1974)
Choral Songs of Homage

Joseph Phibbs was born in London and studied at The Purcell School with the support of a Suffolk County Council scholarship, before continuing his education at King’s College London (B.Mus, M.Mus) where he graduated with First Class Honours, and Cornell University NY (DMA). His teachers have included Param Vir, Sir Harrison Birtwistle, and Steven Stucky, and his works have received widespread performances in the UK and beyond, including at the BBC Last Night of the Proms. He has been composer-in-residence at the Exon Singers Festival (2010) and the 2011 Presteigne Festival.

Since 2003 Phibbs has combined his composing career with the promoting of Benjamin Britten's music, and was made a director of the Britten Estate in 2008. He is currently a visiting member of staff at the Purcell School and King’s College London, and composer-in-residence at Aldeburgh Music Club.

Choral Songs of Homage was commissioned by the Aldeburgh Music Club to celebrate the centenary of their founder, Benjamin Britten. The opening song, Praise, begins where Britten left off, echoing the two-note opening melodic figure of his final work, the uncompleted cantata Praise We Great Men. Hush-a-ba Birdie, a setting of a traditional Scottish lullaby, is generally quick, the galloping ‘wild deer’ and ‘ringing bells’ evoked in a virtuoso piano accompaniment, before the song closes with a sense of repose and calm. I saw Eternity the other night draws upon one of Henry Vaughan’s most transcendental texts: a mystical contemplation of night, time, and space, featuring an array of closely-interwoven melodic lines and soft, sustained chords. The work closes in celebratory style with Good Morrow (‘Pack, clouds, away, and welcome day! With night we banish sorrow.’): a lover, eagerly awaiting his beloved, appeals to the natural world around him to “give my love good morrow”.

1. Praise

2. Hush-a-ba birdie
Hush-a-ba birdie, croon, croon
The sheep are gane to the siller wood,
An the cows are gane to the broom, broom,
An it’s braw milking the kye, kye,
The birds are singing, the bells are ringing
An the wild deer go galloping by.
The gaits are gane to the mountain hie
An they’ll no be hame till noon.

Traditional Scottish lullaby
(siller silver; braw nice; gaits goats)

3. I saw Eternity the other night
I saw Eternity the other night
Like a great Ring of pure and endless light
All calm as it was bright,
And round beneath it, Time in hours, days, years
Driv’n by the spheres
Like a vast shadow mov’d, In which the world
And all her train were hurl’d.

Henry Vaughan (1621/2-1695), from The World

4. Good Morrow
Pack, clouds, away, and welcome, day!
With night we banish sorrow.
Sweet air, blow soft, mount, lark, aloft
To give my Love good morrow.
Wings from the wind to please her mind,
Notes from the lark I’ll borrow:
Bird, prune thy wing, nightingale, sing,
To give my Love good morrow!
To give my Love good morrow
Notes from them all I’ll borrow.

Zoltan Kodaly 1882-1967

Missa Brevis

Zoltan Kodaly (1882-1967) was a Hungarian composer, ethno-musicologist and educationist perhaps best known today for his Kodaly Method of teaching music. Kodaly was a composer of some considerable distinction with stage works, orchestral, chamber and choral music at the heart of his output.

For many years Kodaly was a professor at the Franz Liszt Academy of Music in Budapest, where he was a close colleague and friend of Bela Bartok.

Kodaly had fallen out with Hungary’s pro-Nazi government for his refusal to divorce his wife who was Jewish and the Missa Brevis was written against this background, the turmoil in Hungary and the impending battle for Budapest between the Soviets and Nazis.

It is uncertain exactly when Kodaly wrote the Missa Brevis; between 1942 and 1943 is thought to be most likely. The Mass had its first performance on 11th February 1945 when Kodaly and his wife were sheltering in the basement of the Budapest Opera House during the siege of the capital. The performance took place in one of the opera house’s cloakrooms! The British premiere was in 1948 at the Three Choirs Festival.

The Missa Brevis is influenced by Gregorian chant, Palestrina, Bach, Handel, Dohnanyi and also by Hungarian folk music, something in which both Kodaly and Bartok were passionately interested. This mixture gives a very wide and interesting musical palette, which has many lovely, musically interesting and exciting moments. There are some wonderful high soli soprano parts, reaching top C, and I am grateful to Ben Parry for arranging the three young singers, two of whom are his daughters, to take these parts.

Gloria
Glory be to God in the highest and in earth peace, good will towards men.
We praise thee, we bless thee, we adore thee, we glorify thee.
We give thee thanks for thy great glory,

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesus Christ: O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
Thou that takest away the sins of the world, receive our prayer.
Thou that sittest at the right hand of the Father, have mercy upon us.
For thou art holy, thou only art the Lord, thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art the Most High, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Credo
I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible: and in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds:
God of God, Light of Light, very God of very God, begotten not made, being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made; who for us and our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
He was crucified also for us: He suffered under Pontius Pilate, and was buried, and the third day he rose again according to the scriptures, and ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of the Father. And He shall come again with glory to judge the quick and the dead: whose kingdom shall have no end.
And (I believe) in the Holy Ghost, the Lord, Giver of life, who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified; who spoke through the prophets.
And (I believe) in one holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins and I look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

ZOË BONNER
soprano

British soprano Zoë Bonner is based in her favourite city, London and performs a wide variety of music as part of a busy portfolio career. As a concert soloist, Zoë sings with choral societies across the UK. Television and Radio appearances include BBC Songs of Praise, Radio 4’s Daily Service, Kombat Opera’s Question Time Out (BBC Two), Radio 3’s In Tune and Tony Palmer’s 2011 film Holst - In The Bleak Midwinter for BBC Four. In ensemble, Zoë has performed across Europe with the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment, madrigal quintet Ruby Throat and the Gabrieli Consort.

On the operatic stage, Zoë has strutted in her underwear in the title role of Monteverdi’s The Coronation of Poppea (OperaUpClose), died horribly in Latin as Hyacinthus in Mozart’s Apollo et Hyacinthus (Rose Opera) and triumphed over evil and sea monsters alike as Arianna in Handel’s Giustino (TCM Opera Co.) to excellent reviews. Most recently, she created the role of Leo (formerly known as Leporello) in a radical new production of Don Giovanni at Heaven Nightclub in London. Zoe is a keen pedagogue and is currently acting as vocal consultant on Darling of The Day at the Union Theatre, London, as well as running group workshops and giving individual singing lessons.

Aldeburgh Music Club celebrated its 60th anniversary year in 2012 and is celebrating Britten’s Centenary in 2013. The Club, founded by Benjamin Britten and Peter Pears, has evolved over the years into one of East Anglia’s leading choral societies with over 100 members and 120 patrons. The choir rehearses on Tuesday evenings from September to May. We always welcome new singers. Our purpose is to share the enjoyment of making music to the highest possible standard. The Club organises three major concerts a year in which we are joined by professional soloists and orchestras, and is a regular visitor to Snape Maltings Concert Hall.

Our repertoire includes a broad portfolio of oratorio and religious music, contemporary and commissioned works. In 2012 we performed the world premieres of Home from the Sea by Elis Pehkonen and Merman by our composer-in-residence for 2011/12, Joanna Lee. This work was commissioned by AMC to celebrate the 60th anniversary of the Club. In May 2013 at Orford Church, we will perform the world premiere of Choral Songs of Homage by Joseph Phibbs, which has been commissioned by AMC to celebrate the Britten centenary. Joseph Phibbs is the Aldeburgh Music Club composer-in-residence for 2013.

Aldeburgh Music Club is a registered charity, a member of Making Music, and a member of the Britten 100 Familiar Fields project to celebrate the centenary of Benjamin Britten in 2013.

Humphrey Burton is best known for his music broadcasting. Joining the BBC in 1955 he was, by 1965, the first Head of the new Music and Arts Department. He went on to be a founder member of London Weekend Television as Head of Drama, Arts & Music and later edited and hosted the arts magazine Aquarius. He returned to the BBC in 1975 to head Music and Arts again. He hosted Omnibus and then inaugurated Arena and the long-running series Young Musician of the Year. For the past 30 years he has combined freelance activity as a director of televised opera and concerts with work as an impresario, broadcaster and biographer. Now resident in Aldeburgh, Humphrey is fully involved in music, nationally and internationally, whilst being an energetic champion of amateur music through the Aldeburgh Music Club.
Alan Britten had a long and notable career in the oil industry, followed by service as Chairman of the English Tourism Council. Throughout that time, he maintained his musical interests and was a regular visitor to Aldeburgh Festivals. From 1989-1999 he served on the Council of what was then the Aldeburgh Foundation, after which he was appointed President of the Friends of Aldeburgh Music, a position which he still holds. He is an Honorary Fellow of the Trinity Laban Conservatoire. He is also a Board member of Trinity College London, and a member of the Britten-Pears Local Liaison Committee. As Benjamin Britten’s nephew, Alan represents a direct link with one of the Aldeburgh Music Club’s founding fathers and we especially value his support for what he describes as ‘one of my uncle’s outstanding legacies’.

Robin Leggate. After studying at the RNCM and at Snape Summer School, with Peter Pears, Robin Leggate joined the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden as a principal tenor in 1976. Over the following 35 years, he sang over 900 performances there. He left the company in 2001 to concentrate on larger roles internationally and sang many Britten operas in Europe and America. In concert, he has sung most of the standard repertoire, notably Handel, Mozart, Beethoven and Britten. Robin retired to live in Suffolk in 2011.
